Very bright apartment for sale in Santa Catalina. With 105 m2 of living space and a terrace of 18 m2, this apartment is really charming. We have there 2 bedrooms, a living-dining room, an entrance, an office, a study and a complete bathroom, renovated with a bathtub, completely new and the possibility of making another bathroom en suite. The orientation is south providing a much lighted flat. On the terrace there is a space for the washing machine and garden tools. The kitchen has been reformed with an exclusive design and fitted with new appliances. The large living room is separated by an American bar with direct access to the dining room, the terrace and giving way to a study. Thank's to the high ceiling it is possible to make a mezzanine. The double room has a surface of 25 m2 and a room is already prepared to make another bathroom, it has a balcony where a small table and two chairs can fit, also much lighted. The other room is small...
