Here we have a south facing detached villa built on one level and standing on a plot size of approximately 1200 sq. metres. The villa has recently been refurbished to a high standard and is located in a calm and tranquil part of Santa Ponsa overlooking open countryside. Within the grounds there is a good size swimming pool and plenty of space for relaxing . This property consists of two living accommodations. In the main house there are 2 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms. A good size lounge with an open kitchen and this opens out onto the sunny terrace. There is a log burner within the lounge and plenty of room within the garden to store the logs. Adjoined to the side of the villa is a separate self contained 1 bedroom apartment. This has also been refurbished to a high standard. A large sized tiled terrace sweeps around two sides of the property and the garden area has the obligatory fruit trees. Just a couple of minutes will get you on to the fast road...
