Totally reformed to the highest standards, this villa provides a unique combination of luxury living with Mallorcan finca country life. From the pool or the extensive terraces surrounding the house you can enjoy the one of the most enchanting countryside views in the whole of the South west Mallorca. The historic valley of Sa Coma Freda is one of the jewels of Mallorca, the property is located in the lower end of the valley, just 7 minutes drive or 20 minutes walk to the centre of the historically important authentic cultural and administrative centre of Andratx pueblo. This town benefits from major supermarket brands, small boutique shops, bars and restaurants as well as the municipal centre for the region with county hall close by. The gardens of the house are set on multiple levels providing various different options for use, two large flat lawns allow for safe family use as well as leading down to other terraced areas planted with over a tho...
