This Magnificent, 15 bedroom, Traditional Spanish Farmhouse in Ibi (one of only fifteen masias in the Vinalopo Valley] is located on a truly majestic 55.000m² plot of land, incorporating a beautiful pine forest, fig, pomegranate, almond, grape vine, apple, pear, cherry, golden plum & a 60 tree olive grove; where the olives are harvested and the olive oil can be purchased at the local cooperative. Set along the stunning scenic route between Ibi and Alcoi, with great views of The Parc Natural del Carrascar de La Font Roja, yet just a 15 to 20 minute walk from the town centre of Ibi, where you can find all local amenities and facilities you'll ever need, including a daily traditional Spanish Food Market. This 19th century building was lovingly renovated and restored to its former glory in 2005, using only natural materials and restoring some of the pretty original features, such as the ceiling beams throughout.
