Welcome Estates are pleased to present a rare opportunity to purchase this charming South facing Spanish house which is a five minutes walk to La Zenia beach. This property offers 3 fabulous size bedrooms and two good size bathrooms all allocated downstairs. The terraced front garden has a built in barbecue with ample space to enjoy outside dining, sunbathing and relaxing in a peaceful environment. The open living room and dining area provides a wonderful homely vibe with beams and an open fire place. The modern, open white kitchen has been done to a high standard with propane gas recently added. The property has underfloor heating throughout and air con in each room. There is a summer garden at the back of the house which has a large shed/summerhouse that can be removed to add extra space to the terrace area. There is also another outside terrace with the benefit of a shower room plus a storage room and utility area. The ...
